I have just bought a nww compiter that seemms to hasve incredibly. Sensitive keys.
I have only to hesitate on a letter and it reppppppppeatssss itself asssss ifffff iiiiii hadadad a mind of its oooooown.
A change of paragraph becomes the end of the. world.
A precipice into which i f

To make matters worse iii bought a PC; with french keyboard and not a Mac with eenglish quaiboard which is what I,m used to so the position of the lettres is not qwite the same• I can't find tje key for for example which is inconvenient as i can't send any emails and there we are lve lost the full stop so my writing is becoming stream of consciousness james joyces uses the same technique in his novel ulysses here is an extract from molly blooms soliloquy

Yesterday i must hAve prsed a key and all of a sudden everything was translated into numbers my thoughts changed into an undecipherable code

there it happened again again again.

automatic correction outline my words or/and a BANAL word appears in capital letters AS if it' was impORtant a technique that Maybe I should just close my eyes and tap on the keys randomly and. See what comes out here goes in a sense a pot of ink contains the complete works of shakespeare condensed so here is the alphabet. do with it what you will abcdefghijklmnopqrstvwxyz

O dear !! the u is missing and a world without u is 2 diffict.
